

By Road Preferred Route – A127

If driving from a long distance, make your way to the M25 outer ring motorway of London – take junction 29 – A127 heading east towards Southend. Rimplas is located off the south exit of the A132. Follow the dual carriage way south (A132) to the next roundabout – turn left here into Courtauld Road, take the fifth turning on your right into Josselin Road – take the second turning on your left into Wollaston Way – Rimplas is situated in this road on the left side.

By Road Alternative Route – A13

Take the A13 heading east towards Southend. We are located off the North exit of the A132. Make your way through Basildon Centre keeping to the A132 (a few miles) eventually you will reach a roundabout indicating the Burnt Mills Industrial Estate. Turn right here into Courtauld Road then take the fifth turning on your right into Josselin Road. Take the second turning on your left into Wollaston Way – Rimplas is situated in this road on the lefthand side.
